

UK Butterfly Recorders' Meeting 30 March 2019

At The Birmingham and Midland Institute – Lyttleton Theatre
<http://bmi.org.uk>

PROGRAMME

- 10.00 am Arrival and Coffee
- 10.30 am Welcome
 - Dr Jim Asher (Chairman, Butterfly Conservation)
- 10.40 am Butterflies for the New Millennium
 - Recording Scheme Update - Lorraine Munns (Butterfly Conservation)
 - A New Data Strategy - Dr Katie Cruickshanks (Butterfly Conservation)
- 11.00 am The UK Butterfly Monitoring Scheme: News
 - Professor Tom Brereton (Butterfly Conservation)
- 11.20 am Wider Countryside Butterfly Survey: News and Update
 - Dr Zoë Randle ((Butterfly Conservation)
- 11.40 pm The Purple Hairstreak: Monitoring a canopy species
 - Mike Slater ((Chairman & Conservation Officer, Warwickshire Branch)
- 12.10 pm Butterfly Trends for 2018: Results from the UKBMS
 - Dr Marc Botham (Centre for Ecology and Hydrology)
- 12.30 pm Buffet Lunch
 (including 13.30 pm - BNM Local Co-ordinator/County Recorder Meeting)
- 2:00 pm Why we love butterflies and bees but hate wasps and flies
 - Dr Seirian Sumner (University College London)
- 2:30 pm Understanding the Cryptic Wood White: a lesson in conservation
 - James O'Neill (Queen's University, Belfast)
- 3.00 pm Conservation and monitoring of insect pollinators: from field to national scales
 - Dr Claire Carvell (NERC Centre for Ecology & Hydrology)
- 3.30 pm Butterflies and climate change: from mountains to molehills
 - Dr Rob Wilson (National Museum of Natural Sciences, Spain)
- 4.00 pm Discussion and Closing Remarks
 - Dr Jim Asher (Chairman, Butterfly Conservation)
- 4.15 pm Meeting Closes

Book your place here <https://butterfly-conservation.org/butterflies/uk-butterfly-recorders-meeting>