

TOP

MOTHS

Butterfly
Conservation

Species: Lime Hawk-moth

Did you know?

Lime Hawk-moth caterpillars feed on the leaves of lime trees. When the caterpillars are ready to pupate they change colour from bright green to purplish-grey.

Lime Hawk-moth can be found in England and Wales. They fly in May and June.

Size (e.g., wingspan)

62

Camouflage

78

Defences

34

Cuteness

82

Rarity

45