

Butterflies and moths need habitats that help them feed, breed, and shelter. A Wild Space is a habitat that supports butterflies and moths through their entire life cycle. It includes flowers for adults to feed on, food plants for their caterpillars, and somewhere for them to hide away and keep safe.

Colour-in the habitat below. Can you label the features that will help butterflies feed, breed and shelter?

For more information and ideas visit www.wild-spaces.co.uk