

UK Moth Recorders' Meeting 2025

Saturday 25 January via Zoom

10:00 Welcome, Russel Hobson. Director of Business and Research, Butterfly Conservation

10:10 National Moth Recording Scheme update. Dr Zoë Randle, Butterfly Conservation

10:30 Charismatic Clearwings in mid-Wales. Dr Norman Lowe, County Moth Recorder, Breconshire

10:55 Comfort Break

11:05 Black, White, Red & Gold – surveying Argyll's rare moths. David Hill, Conservation Manager (Scotland), Butterfly Conservation

11:30 Can we measure the impact of insect change on bird and bat populations? Dr Luke Evans, University of Reading

11:55 Comfort Break

12:05 Understanding why artificial lights trap flying insects using high-speed videography. Dr Sam Fabian, Imperial College London

12:30 Do sustainable lighting practices sustain moths? Dr Avalon Owens, Rowland Institute, Harvard University

12:55 Closing remarks

13:30 – 15:00 County Moth Recorder and Verification Assistant Meeting, by invitation via a different meeting link